The Cambridge History of Judaism: Volume 5, Jews in the Medieval Islamic World Phillip I. Lieberman, 2021-09-02 Volume 5 examines the history of Judaism in the Islamic World from the rise of Islam in the early sixth century to the expulsion of Jews from Spain at the end of the fifteenth This period witnessed radical transformations both within the Jewish community itself and in the broader contexts in which the Jews found themselves The rise of Islam had a decisive influence on Jews and Judaism as the conditions of daily life and elite culture shifted throughout the Islamicate world Islamic conquest and expansion affected the shape of the Jewish community as the center of gravity shifted west to the North African communities and long distance trading opportunities led to the establishment of trading diasporas and flourishing communities as far east as India By the end of our period many of the communities on the other side of the Mediterranean had come into their own while many of the Jewish communities in the Islamic world had retreated from their high water mark

How to Read Islamic Carpets Walter B. Denny, 2014-12-15 The engaging and accessible volume offers invaluable insights and novel perspectives on what is perhaps the most iconic of all Islamic art forms the handwoven carpet With a history stretching back to the fourteenth century and a geographic reach spanning Europe to Eurasia Mongolia to the Middle East Islamic carpets boast a degree of innovation and technical skill to rival the world's most exalted works of art Beauty and brilliance emerge in equal measure from carpets of all forms be they colossal silk rugs exchanged as gifts by sultans and kings or small and sturdy textiles woven for use in nomadic encampments Some sixty superlative examples from the Metropolitan Museum's collection from Persia India Turkey North Africa and across the Islamic world are presented here in lavish detail with concise and approachable texts that position each work in historical and cultural context Beginning with a discussion of materials and techniques How to Read Islamic Carpets offers a comprehensive introduction to this captivating art form and reveals the lasting influence of carpet weaving traditions in lands far beyond the Islamic world

Transottoman Matters Arkadiusz Blaszczyk, Robert Born, Florian Riedler, 2021-12-06 This volume analyzes historical processes of mobility by focusing on material objects Mobility as a shorthand for various related processes such as migration transfer entanglement and translation involves human actors immaterial elements such as ideas and knowledge but also objects in various forms and functions For example as material infrastructures they are the basis for transport and travel as goods they are the object and purpose of trade or gift exchange By focusing on the way objects determined certain processes of mobility and how their social meaning and materiality was transformed in these processes the contributors hope to gain deeper insight into the historical relations between the Ottoman Empire Eastern Europe and Persia

The Cambridge History of the Mongol Empire 2 Volumes Michal Biran, Hodong Kim, 2023-08-17 In the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries Chinggis Khan and his progeny ruled over two thirds of Eurasia Connecting East West North and South the Mongols integrated most of the Old World promoting unprecedented cross cultural contacts and triggering the reshuffle of religious ethnic and geopolitical identities The Cambridge History of the Mongol Empire studies the Empire holistically in its full Eurasian context putting the Mongols and their nomadic culture at the center Written by an international team of more than forty leading scholars this two volume set provides an authoritative and multifaceted history of the Mongol Moment 1206 1368 in world history and includes an unprecedented survey of the various sources for its study textual written in sixteen languages archaeological and visual This groundbreaking Cambridge History sets a new standard for future study of the Empire It will serve as the fundamental reference work for those interested in Mongol Eurasian and world history

Facts and Artefacts - Art in the Islamic World Annette Hagedorn, Avinoam Shalem, 2007-11-13 The scholarly search on the art of the object is of enduring interest and enjoys a new renaissance in the last few years This book mainly explores the art and craft of Islamic artefacts and presents to the reader a diverse range of approaches. Despite this variety, in which also artefacts of the pre-Islamic period as well as orientalised European artefacts of the modern era are included, there is an overarching theme: the linking of the interpretation of objects and their specific aesthetics to textual sources and the aim of setting them in historical and artistic context. In this impressive collection honouring the German scholar of Islamic art Jens Krüger on his 65th birthday, Avinoam Shalem and Annette Hagedorn bring together contributions from a highly distinguished group of scholars of Asiatic, Sasanian, Islamic as well as European art history. Unpublished artefacts and new interpretations are presented in this book.
