as a friend and as an Episcopal priest in case psychic Rosemary McGuire calls for help Rosemary doesn't know exactly why the show was canceled other than a demon murdered the show's producer and the network buried every scrap of harrowing footage under a ton of hacker proof security When an independent filmmaker shows up at Rosemary's metaphysical bookshop with tantalizing clues that a backup copy of the missing footage exists she promises Michael she'll call some crusty old priest in a pinch and begins following a trail of impossibly tiny bread crumbs But that trail doesn't just lead her somewhere It leads something to Rosemary alarming enough that she calls Michael's priest friend who turns out to be way younger and heroically handsome than she could have ever anticipated But the heat between them may be no match for the demonic fire that grows hotter and more dangerous the closer they get to the truth

Some demons just refuse to stay down In a moment of sheer unthinking terror Rosemary McGuire raised powers she never knew she possessed to save herself and Will Gordon from the part demon Caleb Lockwood Now as Will heals and the police ask questions she and Will dare not answer more facets of Rosemary's power begin to manifest leaving her wondering exactly how far they reach Caleb got away with the hard drive that contained footage proving demons are real but there's one blessing no one died in the fiery confrontation At least that's what Rosemary and Will think until Caleb's body turns up and the police stop looking for a perp and start seeking a murderer With suspicion floating around them Will and Rosemary are drawn closer together as they follow a faint wisp of a clue to track down the stolen hard drive and step straight into a hornet's nest of demons hiding in plain sight That's not all they find The closer they get to their goal the more twists and turns arise to trip them up threatening a future they're just beginning to envision Unless they stop the ghosts and the demons of the past from destroying it
