Coin Edward Vii Fergus Hume:

A COIN of EDWARD VII by FERGUS HUME Fergus Hume, 2018-01-06 Two old ladies sat in the corner of the drawing room The younger a colonial cousin of the elder was listening eagerly to gossip which dealt with English society in general and Rickwell society in particular They presumably assisted in the entertainment of the children already gathered tumultuously round the Christmas tree provided by Mr Morley but Mrs Parry's budget of scandal was too interesting to permit the relaxing of Mrs McKail's attention Ah yes said Mrs Parry a hatchet faced dame with a venomous tongue and a retentive memory Morley's fond of children although he has none of his own But those three pretty little girls said Mrs McKail who was fat fair and considerably over forty Triplets replied the other sinking her voice The only case of triplets I have met with but not his children No Mrs Morley was a widow with triplets and money Morley married her for the last and had to take the first as part of the bargain I don't deny but what he does his duty by the three Mrs McKail's keen grey eyes wander to the fat rosy little man who laughingly struggled amidst a bevy of children the triplets included He seems fond of them said she nodding Seems emphasised Mrs Parry shrewdly Ha I don't trust the man If he were all he seems would his wife's face wear that expression No don't tell me Mrs Morley was a tall lean serious woman dressed in sober grey She certainly looked careworn and appeared to participate in the festivities more as a duty than for the sake of amusement He is said to be a good husband observed Mrs McKail doubtfully Are you sure I'm sure of nothing where men are concerned I wouldn't trust one of them Morley is attentive enough to his wife and he adores the triplets so he says but I go by his eye Orgy is written in that eye It can pick out a pretty woman my dear Oh his wife doesn't look sick with anxiety for nothing At any rate he doesn't seem attentive to that pretty girl over there the one in black with the young man Girl She's twenty five if she's an hour I believe she paints and puts belladonna in her eyes I wouldn't have her for my governess No she's too artful though I can't agree with you about her prettiness Is she the governess Mrs Parry nodded and the ribbons on her cap curled like Medusa's snakes For six months Mrs Morley has put up with her She teaches the Tricolor goodness knows what The Tricolor So we call the triplets Don't you see one is dressed in red another in white and the third in blue Morley's idea I believe As though a man had any right to interest himself in such things We call them collectively the Tricolor and Anne Denham is the governess Pretty No Artful Yes See how she is trying to fascinate Ware That handsome young man with the fair moustache and The same interrupted Mrs Parry too eager to blacken character to give her friend a chance of concluding her sentence Giles Ware of Kingshart the head of one of our oldest Essex families He came into the estates two years ago and has settled down into a country squire after a wild life But the old Adam is in him my dear Look at his smile and she doesn't seem to mind Brazen creature And Mrs Parry shuddered virtuously The other lady thought that Ware had a most fascinating smile and was a remarkably handsome young man of the fair Saxon type He certainly appeared to be much interested in the conversation of Miss Denham But what young man could resist so beautiful a woman For in spite of Mrs Parry's disparagement Anne was a splendidly handsome brunette with a temper added Mrs McKail mentally as she eyed the well suited couple Mrs Parry s tongue still raged like a prairie fire And she knows he s engaged she snorted Look at poor Daisy Kent out in the cold while that woman monopolizes Ware Ugh
